

I urge you to reject the proposed change in broadcast station ownership limits. I believe that reducing the numbers of broadcast station owners would be significantly detrimental to American society and our democracy.

Sincerely,
John Olson